

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive style, likely a letter or document. The text is written on a strip of paper with a light-colored border. The characters are dark and fluid, typical of the cursive (sōsho) style. The text is arranged in approximately 15 horizontal lines, reading from right to left. The first line on the right contains the characters '大隈重信宛' (To Oki Naomasa), which is partially obscured by the calibration chart at the top of the page.
